

HEI Schools is hiring a Lead Teacher fluent in Spanish

HEI Schools (Helsinki International Schools) is opening a new preschool for 2.5-6 year old children in Franklin, Tennessee in September 2021. We are now hiring a Spanish speaking Early Childhood Education (ECE) teacher to lead our HEI Franklin team.

This role consists of implementing the HEI Curriculum based on the Finnish national ECE model and latest pedagogical research and developing the preschool's culture using HEI Schools' teaching materials based on Finnish early childhood education. This will also entail eating lunch with students to model healthy eating habits and conversation skills as well as spending time outdoors with the students.

Your qualifications, skills and attributes

- A suitable degree for the position
- 1 year of teaching experience in similar positions
- Excellent oral and written proficiency in Spanish
- Excellent interaction, collaboration, leadership and problem-solving skills, as well as good organizational skills and a systematic approach
- An understanding and a sensitivity for cultural diversity
- A positive attitude and great cooperation skills in your new HEI Family
- A passion for supporting children in finding their own personalities and ways of learning

What HEI Schools will offer

- An inspiring HEI Community where you can pioneer in taking Finnish ECE to the U.S.
- A strong focus on research-based pedagogy with a partnership with the University of Helsinki with an emphasis on child's active participation and agency in learning, curiosity & creativity, environmental awareness, holistic well-being and learning together (equality and trust)
- Teacher training according to the HEI teacher training guidelines
- An international HEI community with close collaboration with other HEI Schools' teachers around the world (e.g. Argentina, Australia, China, Saudi Arabia, Finland)

If you have a passion for working with children, you are dedicated to learn and teach according to the HEI Way, work collaboratively and improve yourself professionally, please send your application by email to heifranklin@outlook.com
